Accessing the Literary Reference Center database via Galileo

1. Go to the Galileo website: http://www.galileo.usg.edu/welcome/

2. Log in as a GCSSK12 user by typing in the password: behold
3. Click on the Databases A-Z link.

4. Click on the letter “L” to access the Literary Reference Center.
5. Scroll down to and select the Literary Reference Center Database link.

6. Enter the title or author to search for the work you are researching.
7. Select the “Literary Criticism” source type to limit your results to literary criticism.

8. As you are searching, avoid links to Masterplots selections.
9. Select the piece of literary criticism that most interests you and click on the document link.

10. Read the article. For the purposes of this assignment, you will then write a brief abstract/summary of the article, focusing on how the article helped you better understand or appreciate some aspect of the piece of fiction you are researching. Include an MLA-formatted works cited entry following your abstract/summary. Click on the citation icon for help with your citation.
11. Scroll down to find the MLA citation format and copy it onto your paper.

12. In accordance with MLA formatting, the words “Works Cited” should be centered on your paper and the entry should be formatted with double-spacing and a hanging indent.

Flannery O’Connor’s Misfit and the Mystery of Evil

The article discusses the short story "A Good Man Is Hard to Find" by the American author Flannery O’Connor, with particular focus given to the character of The Misfit and the themes of evil and redemption. The story’s exploration of religion and the distinctions between good and evil are also commented on. Your abstract/summary should be a little more specific than what I have here, but you should try to limit yourself to a paragraph of four to eight sentences in length.
